DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 4-7,9,10 recites the limitation "the compression unit" in claim 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Response to Arguments

Regards to the prior art rejection, applicant argues the following:

However, Applicant maintains that all of the claims, as concurrently amended to point out the distinction between the present invention and the packing unit described in HiDDle, are in condition for allowance. Specifically, the amended independent claims explicitly state that the packing unit can be removed from the steam tube and spindle with the packing material intact in the housing. As noted above, the ~ discloses the type of prior art packing assembly described in the background of the subject application, which the present invention was designed to improve upon. That is, the packing assembly described in the ~ reference is not configured to be removed and installed from the steam tube and spindle as an integral unit with the packing material held intact. Rather, the packing unit described in ~ is designed to be disassembled and re-packed With the steam tube and hub assembly remaining in place.

These arguments are persuasive and the rejection withdrawn.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
